we expected from him. Long may be, our gallant standard-hearer, continue to give such deadly blows to the Disunionists. At night your gifted of contemporary, Joseph Odell, Est, delivered a speech at the Court House to a large crowd. Odell sustained his reputulion nobly. He made a fine and impressive speech, which was loudly applanded. He fully showed that he was mighty with the tungue as well as the pen. When he concluded loud calls were made for flarnes, who responded with a short but very powerful appeal for the Union, and the crowd, hard to suitate with good things, made both Embry and Harlan speak again, and again did they nobby do their work. Old Clark is good for 700 majority. Her gallant sons will be true to their ancient faith; Clark will be loyal to the Union. WINCHESTER. Mr. Vernon, Gr. 5, 1800.

Cost of Living in Panis.—A Paris correspondent of the Boston Traveller says there are now 95,000 vacant rooms in that city, mede so by the exactions of landlords. The writer adds:

It is something marvellous to see how expensive life has become in Paris. Formerly it was one of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, the arcadia of the numeration of the armies in the world, the arcadia of the numeration of the same object; but Cavour recognized lifficulties which have to be a voided or conjured away, while Garibaldi believes he can ride down all obstacles aword in hand. If they insist upon security to indulge in its too corrigates (to enable the color is a the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheapest cities in the world, and people of the cheape half-pay officers from all the armies in the world, the arcadia of the annuitant and straitened gentlem in. Rents have increased in Paris, and the enormous taxes laid at the octorigates (to enable the city to indulge in its topographical and architectural rgies) on everything we require have raised the prices of all the necessaries and luxuries of life.
